About us

Mount St. Joseph Girls' College breathes life into contemporary learning, inspires girls to strive to fulfil their goals and celebrates their many talents. At the heart of our mission is the rich heritage we have inherited from Saint Mary of the Cross MacKillop. Following in the footsteps of this famous female educator, we commit ourselves to walking with young women on their learning and faith journeys towards adulthood.

We are committed to the partnership between staff, students and families and we recognise that every girl has individual talents. They are encouraged as independent learners to identify and pursue their goals of academic excellence and the mastery of new skills through sporting endeavours, creative and performing arts pursuits or responses to social justice issues.

As a Catholic community, we are committed to the ongoing development of Mount St. Joseph Girls' College as a vibrant and inclusive learning community where the pursuit of excellence is encouraged and its achievement celebrated.

Together we strive to welcome, to believe, to care, to respect, to learn and to achieve our full potential.

Our Show

A deviously delicious Broadway and Hollywood sci-fi smash musical, Little Shop of Horrors has devoured the hearts of theatre goers for over 30 years. Howard Ashman and Alan Menken (Disney's The Little Mermaid, Beauty and The Beast, and Aladdin) are the creative geniuses behind this strange and interesting story of a living plant on a quest for global domination!

Mount St Joseph has a proud tradition of school musicals, and this year we're breaking new ground with our first-ever production of this beloved classic. Our school musicals create a vital platform where young adults in our community find a safe space to develop, shine, and for some, take their first steps toward careers in the performing arts. For others, the experience builds essential life skills: confidence, teamwork, self-discipline, and the invaluable social connections formed when making music with peers across all year levels.

The school musical embodies our commitment to inclusion; we actively encourage students of all abilities and backgrounds to participate, creating a microcosm of our diverse community working together toward a common goal. By supporting our production, sponsors don't just fund a show—they invest in the personal growth of our students, foster arts education, and help create meaningful memories that will last a lifetime. Your sponsorship directly enables these transformative experiences while connecting your brand with an event that brings together students, families, and the broader community in celebration of creativity and achievement.

By sponsoring MSJ's Little Shop of Horrors, your business will gain exposure to a vibrant audience of 1,200 students and their families from across Melbourne's western corridor, spanning from Footscray to Werribee as well as the ever growing online presence across social platforms with over 7000 followers currently.
